

Tuesday 28th February

Bird Adaptations

Date: 28th Feb 2022

Adaptations of Bowland Birds

1. Long toes to spread weight.
5. Feather colourings can match surroundings.
6. can sit or stand very still.
7. long legs for wading.
11. lobed feet to spread weight on soft ground.
12. long curved beak for digging in soft mud.

4. very good eyesight.
9. can dive to catch food.
10. Large talons for grabbing prey.
5. Feather colouring match surroundings.
2. sharp curved beak for tearing meat.

6. Can sit or stand very still.
5. Feather colourings match surroundings.
11. lobed feet to spread weight.
2. Strong beak for digging in ground.
7. Long legs for wading.