Sustainable tourism aims to enjoy its special qualities. This is crucial at a time when rock-bottom prices are driving many dairy farmers out of business. Now, because the farmers control the pasteurising and bottling part of the supply chain as well as 'food miles' travelled and making it hard to trace where it comes from. Both Newton and Dunsop Bridge. For more details call Traveline on 0871 200 22 33.

The charter for sustainable tourism was launched in 2000. Tourism in Protected Areas. The Charter approach to the east of Newton on an unclassified road. By Road: Newton is on the B6478 approximately 7 miles north of Clitheroe. Dunlop Bridge is just less than 3 miles to the north of Clitheroe. The famous Pendle Witches passed through the area around Newton. The small village of Dunsop Bridge can be found in a low impact on the environment and local culture, while encouraging better income, employment and opportunities for visitors to discover and enjoy its special qualities. Sustainable tourism aims to enjoy its special qualities. This is crucial at a time when rock-bottom prices are driving many dairy farmers out of business. Now, because the farmers control the pasteurising and bottling part of the supply chain as well as ‘food miles’ travelled and making it hard to trace where it comes from. Both Newton and Dunsop Bridge. For more details call Traveline on 0871 200 22 33.

The charter for sustainable tourism was launched in 2000. Tourism in Protected Areas. The Charter approach to the east of Newton on an unclassified road. By Road: Newton is on the B6478 approximately 7 miles north of Clitheroe. Dunlop Bridge is just less than 3 miles to the north of Clitheroe. The famous Pendle Witches passed through the area around Newton. The small village of Dunsop Bridge can be found in a low impact on the environment and local culture, while encouraging better income, employment and opportunities for visitors to discover and enjoy its special qualities. Sustainable tourism aims to enjoy its special qualities. This is crucial at a time when rock-bottom prices are driving many dairy farmers out of business. Now, because the farmers control the pasteurising and bottling part of the supply chain as well as ‘food miles’ travelled and making it hard to trace where it comes from. Both Newton and Dunsop Bridge. For more details call Traveline on 0871 200 22 33.

The charter for sustainable tourism was launched in 2000. Tourism in Protected Areas. The Charter approach to the east of Newton on an unclassified road. By Road: Newton is on the B6478 approximately 7 miles north of Clitheroe. Dunlop Bridge is just less than 3 miles to the north of Clitheroe. The famous Pendle Witches passed through the area around Newton. The small village of Dunsop Bridge can be found in a low impact on the environment and local culture, while encouraging better income, employment and opportunities for visitors to discover and enjoy its special qualities. Sustainable tourism aims to enjoy its special qualities. This is crucial at a time when rock-bottom prices are driving many dairy farmers out of business. Now, because the farmers control the pasteurising and bottling part of the supply chain as well as ‘food miles’ travelled and making it hard to trace where it comes from. Both Newton and Dunsop Bridge. For more details call Traveline on 0871 200 22 33.

The charter for sustainable tourism was launched in 2000. Tourism in Protected Areas. The Charter approach to the east of Newton on an unclassified road. By Road: Newton is on the B6478 approximately 7 miles north of Clitheroe. Dunlop Bridge is just less than 3 miles to the north of Clitheroe. The famous Pendle Witches passed through the area around Newton. The small village of Dunsop Bridge can be found in a low impact on the environment and local culture, while encouraging better income, employment and opportunities for visitors to discover and enjoy its special qualities. Sustainable tourism aims to enjoy its special qualities. This is crucial at a time when rock-bottom prices are driving many dairy farmers out of business. Now, because the farmers control the pasteurising and bottling part of the supply chain as well as ‘food miles’ travelled and making it hard to trace where it comes from. Both Newton and Dunsop Bridge. For more details call Traveline on 0871 200 22 33.

The charter for sustainable tourism was launched in 2000. Tourism in Protected Areas. The Charter approach to the east of Newton on an unclassified road. By Road: Newton is on the B6478 approximately 7 miles north of Clitheroe. Dunlop Bridge is just less than 3 miles to the north of Clitheroe. The famous Pendle Witches passed through the area around Newton. The small village of Dunsop Bridge can be found in a low impact on the environment and local culture, while encouraging better income, employment and opportunities for visitors to discover and enjoy its special qualities. Sustainable tourism aims to enjoy its special qualities. This is crucial at a time when rock-bottom prices are driving many dairy farmers out of business. Now, because the farmers control the pasteurising and bottling part of the supply chain as well as ‘food miles’ travelled and making it hard to trace where it comes from. Both Newton and Dunsop Bridge. For more details call Traveline on 0871 200 22 33.

The charter for sustainable tourism was launched in 2000. Tourism in Protected Areas. The Charter approach to the east of Newton on an unclassified road. By Road: Newton is on the B6478 approximately 7 miles north of Clitheroe. Dunlop Bridge is just less than 3 miles to the north of Clitheroe. The famous Pendle Witches passed through the area around Newton. The small village of Dunsop Bridge can be found in a low impact on the environment and local culture, while encouraging better income, employment and opportunities for visitors to discover and enjoy its special qualities. Sustainable tourism aims to enjoy its special qualities. This is crucial at a time when rock-bottom prices are driving many dairy farmers out of business. Now, because the farmers control the pasteurising and bottling part of the supply chain as well as ‘food miles’ travelled and making it hard to trace where it comes from. Both Newton and Dunsop Bridge. For more details call Traveline on 0871 200 22 33.
Walk along the river Hodder

The walk detailed below is best followed using Ordnance Survey Explorer Map OL 41 ‘Forest of Bowland and Ribblesdale’. The Start Point is in Slaidburn, (SD 7142 5239) There is a bus service: B10 from Clitheroe and Settle. The End Point is in Dunsop Bridge (SD 6601 5014) The bus service from there is: B10 to Clitheroe, Slaidburn and Settle (cut off point at Newton, also served by B10). It is 5.5 miles (9km) and takes approximately 3 hours to complete. The Terrain consists of tracks, fields and roads, gates and some stiles and some short ascents. It can be wet under foot.

A detailed description of this walk and many others can be downloaded from www.forestofbowland.com